

GERMANY SING ARMISTICE GREAT WAR COMES TO END

After four years of fighting on front great war was finally over. At 11 am on 11 of november 1918 germany has sing the armistice.

Germany wasn't strong enough to continue the war. Especially when USA had joined with hundreds of thousands of fledgling soldiers which arrived really quickly to France.

A lot of soldiers had returned happily home. Some of them soldiers had a physical or mental effects on their health. They couldn't back to their normal life after the tragic things that had happened during the war.

The secret tunnelers of WW1

BBC History

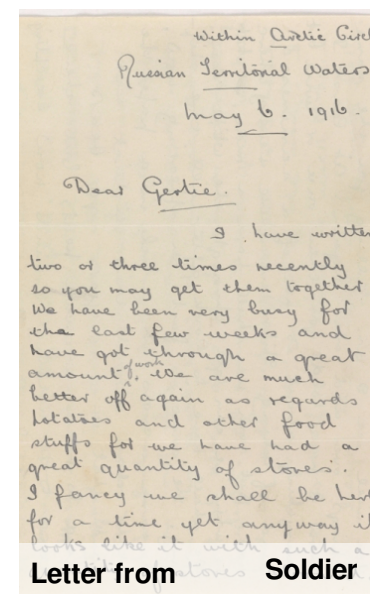

WW1 Soldiers

Clare Washbrook

DIARIES AND LETTERS

One of main thing in a haversacks was a notebook. In notebook soldiers wrote their feelings, emotions and letters to the love ones. They described the conditions in trenches, and how they felt really perturb. The smell and rats were actuality also unpleasant for soldiers.

Letter from Soldier

The image shows soldiers after they came back home

