The European Day of Languages, as its name suggests, is a celebration of European languages held on 26th September every year since 2002.

WELCOME AUTUMN

Autumn is one of the four seasons on Earth and is the transition from Summer into Winter. In North America, Autumn is also known as the fall, in which both Thanksgiving and Halloween are celebrated. One of the main features of Autumn is the shedding of leaves from deciduous trees.

The main aims of the celebration are to promote the benefits of language learning, the linguistic diversity of Europe, and to encourage language learning among people of all ages.

The most noticeable difference between American and British English is vocabulary. There are hundreds of everyday words that are different. For example, Brits call the front of a car the bonnet, while Americans call it the hood. Americans go on vacation, while Brits go on holidays.

What differences are you aware of?

HOW TO FIGHT CORONAVIRUS

Coronavirus is spreading quickly in some parts of the world, causing illnesses that can be mild or serious, but there are some simple steps you can take to be safer!

If you cough or sneeze, cover your mouth and nose with the inside of your elbow

Wash your hands often for 20 seconds using soap and water

Keep a distance from anyone coughing or sneezing

If you go to the market, don't touch animals or the area they are in

Alert and then see a doctor if you have a fever, cough, or difficulty breathing

The TV series Stranger Things is based on an interesting book Stranger Things. It is an amazing and really interesting book. I really recomend it. -Pola

Boy's Day (Dzień Chłopaka) is an informal holiday celebrated in Poland on September 30. Although the celebration is unofficial, it is quite popular among high school. The exact origin of the holiday is unknown, but most likely it was created to complement Women's Day (March 8), so that boys would not feel left out and would have a chance to receive presents and greetings from girls.
